

The Front Entrance

The front feels:

dark

uninviting

like somebody broke in creepy

The front is saying:

make me invite people

stay away

beware

I feel unwanted

The front should say:

I love

myself (or something)

I am here to comfort you and keep you safe welcome

I'm here to help you come in, I'm not as bad as I look

we're open

The front should feel:

I feel happy

The front would need:

changed paint

blinds, or something

flowers
